'Yorkshire Landscapes' - 26th May

This exhibition features something that we are all very passionate about - our stunning yorkshire countryside. We have a great selection of artists who feel the way we do and continue to brave our not-so-fantastic weather to provide us with some of the most beautiful local landscape paintings. A must exhibition for any Yorkshire lover!

'By The Seaside' - 7th July

A mixed exhibition highlighting the beauty of our British harbours and coastlines. A great way to get you in that summer mood come rain or shine! the exhibition will feature new pieces from old favorites and some great new talent to the gallery showcasing a wide variety of styles to suit all tastes.

Neville Fleetwood - 1st September

This much anticipated exhibition features exceptionally popular Neville Fleetwood. The self confessed colourist is providing us with an exquisite selection of landscapes and some striking still lifes. The award winning artists' vibrant style has earned him a following throughout the UK and he regularly exhibits his impressionistic style in London.

Mark Sofilas - 6th October

Back by popular demand! This October we are showcasing a gallery full of the Australian borns' quirky and colourful take on the Yorkshire landscape. Mark's trademark harbour scenes are always a sell out in the gallery and we are looking forward to having him back for another year. Get here early though, as his many fans will be queuing out the door for a new Sofilas!

Paul Talbot-Greaves & Clare Haley - 10th November

As one of our most famous local artists Paul Talbot-Greaves' reputation precedes him. His watercolour landscapes are extremely popular and all previous shows of his have been a huge success. This year we have paired him Clare Haley's superb turner-esque oils. Two very similar subjects in contrasting styles.

The Peter Brook & Christmas Show 1st December

It just wouldn't be Christmas without Peter Brook! This year we are combining our usual expansive range of Peter Brook prints and original paintings alongside a fantastic festive gift selection including ceramics, jewellery and sculpture perfect for all of your Christmas shopping needs.
